ABOUT THE PLAY

Turkish American Arts Society of New York and Art Evi Production are proud to present Erkan Kolcak Kostendil in '12 Numarali Adam – Man #12', a one-man play. It is one of Kostendil's longest-running plays which appeared in over 75 cities around the globe. The play is about a man who is a goalkeeper on a soccer team and throughout the play, he questions his past experiences, choices, and life interacting with the audience.

Erkan Kolcak Kostendil

Erkan Kolcak Köstendil, is a Turkish actor, writer, director, and singer. He studied theater at the prestigious Mimar Sinan University of the Fine Arts. He started his acting career at a young age performing in many different theater plays. As his theater career continues he has become one of the most popular actors in Türkiye. Making a successful transition into TV acting, Kostendil has appeared in numerous popular shows and films, and has claimed his place within the acting world by capitalizing on his unique character interpretations. He will meet for the first time with his audiences at a live performance in the United States
